BOSNIA-HERZEGOVINA EMERGENCY: SUMMARY

In May 2014, the worst rain fall in 120 years fell on Bosnia-Herzegovina and surrounding areas. The downpours caused floods and landslides that affected thousands of people and isolated entire communities. Main and sideroads became impassable; hundreds of thousands of homes and buildings were destroyed; whole villages were wiped out.

Islamic Relief teams responded quickly to help assess the situation and provide vital aid to those who needed it most. IRUSA donors will help support those efforts by supplying items such as sleeping bags, raincoats, boots, generators for electricity, food packages, bottled water, cleaning tools, hygiene kits, and more to survivors.

Islamic Relief has been working in Bosnia-Herzegovina since 1992 to provide vital emergency assistance to people in need during the Bosnian War, and continues to provide seasonal distributions and orphan support.
